Special to the Gazette.

SENATE.

MADISON, March 31.—The Wisconsin Legislature, of 1882, adjourned sine die at 12 m. The Senate was adjourned by Senator Burrows, President pro tem, who made a few eloquent and feeling remarks. There were five Senators present at the final adjournment.

ASSEMBLY.

In the Assembly quite a number of members were present, and during the forenoon an enjoyable time was had, songs sung, and speeches made, etc. At 12 o'clock Speaker Gilson made an eloquent speech, and declared the Assembly adjourned. The session has lasted 80 days, and the number of acts becoming laws will be about the same as last year.

Special to the Gazette.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 31.—The Czar has ordered commutation of all sentences passed upon Nihilists to hard labor in the mines indefinitely, except Lieutenant Suchanoff, who is granted military execution to-day.

MONUMENT BLOWN UP.

Special to the Gazette.

TARRYTOWN, March 31.—Major Andre's monument, erected here by the liberality of Cyrus W. Field, was blown up last night with dynamite, during the momentary absence of the guard. The persons are unknown. They threw the dynamite at the base, which made a loud explosion. The foundation is wrecked and the shaft has been left standing lapsed.

THE PRESIDENT AND MASON

WASHINGTON, March 30.—There is little doubt that the President will approve the report of Judge-Advocate-General Swain in the Mason case, the effect of which will be to declare that the court-martial proceedings were invalid, and to set Mason at liberty. It is not yet determined whether the President will so approve of General Swain's decision as to restore Mason to the army. In any event, it seems very probable that Mason will not be long confined at the Albany penitentiary.

CONSOLIDATION.

MILWAUKEE, March 30.—The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul line has just absorbed the Hastings and Stillwater railroad, the Illinois and Wisconsin, the Janesville, Rockford and Beloit, and Iowa and Eastern. All are short lines, but their value is over one million dollars. The transfers have all been made quietly and just leaked out to-day.

BRILLIANT BANQUET.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Ex-Senator A. A. Sargent, the newly appointed Minister to Berlin, was given a splendid banquet and reception to-night at the Palace by a large number of merchants and professional men of the city. Several hundred guests were present, including resident consuls, vice-consuls, and leading representatives of other governments.

AGAINST A RECTOR.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., March 30.—P. B. Morrison, formerly pastor of the Episcopal church here has preferred a protest and charges to Bishop Welles against Joel Clarke, the present pastor, because Clarke used a magic lantern in the church Sunday evening to illustrate sermons.

FIGHT FOR A JUDGESHIP.

A Bitter Contest in the Twelfth Circuit—Some Inside History.

[Special Dispatch to the Sentinel.]

WATERTOWN, March 30.—Up to within the past three days it seemed an almost absolute certainty that the election for Judge of the Twelfth Judicial Circuit, would take place without any contest, much less any ill-feeling, animosity or excitement. Where no feeling of strife was apparent a few days ago, there is now going on a bitter personal struggle for the emine that is certain of leaving its path, results greatly to be deplored by every lover of an untraveled judiciary. For this unpleasant, if not lamentable state of affairs connected with the judgeship, the circuit is indebted to the very peculiar and wholly inconsistent course of Judge Conger, January 9th last, Judge Conger, in a letter, declined to be regarded as a candidate for re-election to the office of Circuit Judge. John R. Bennett, of Janesville, in perfect good faith to Judge Conger and his friends, consented to become a candidate for the bench after Judge Conger had signified his intention in unqualified terms of stepping down and out. But now, at the eleventh hour, Judge Conger springs himself upon the electors for their support, and thus opens upon the circuit Pandora's box with all its attendant evils, engendering a bitter and relentless contest. It is said that a certain man in Janesville is the inspiring spirit to this movement. He has a grievance, the story goes, against Mr. Bennett. This individual's son was expelled from the Janesville public school. He brought suit against the board for their act of expulsion. The board employed Mr. Bennett as their counsel. Judge Conger rendered the decision in favor of the scholar and his replacement in the school. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, and the decision of the lower court was reversed. Hence this man's great endeavor to get even with Mr. Bennett in the manner cited. This person was in the internal revenue service of the government some years ago, and is known to the sorrow of many in this end of the circuit. He gained considerable notoriety as a sharp, very sharp, almost too sharp, detective. It is doubtful if the ex-detective, who is so active in our midst in lighting down upon persons ignorant of the law and taking from them the "utmost farthing," can render much assistance to his favorite candidate for judge in this city and vicinity.

Profit $1,200.

"To sum it up, six long years of bed-ridden sickness, costing $200 per year, total $1,200—all this expense was stopped by three bottles of Hop Bitters taken by my wife. She has done her own housework for a year since, without the loss of a day, and I want everybody to know it, for their benefit."

SEASON'S PORK-PACKING.

CINCINNATI, March 30.—The Cincinnati Price Current of to-day publishes its thirty-third annual statement of hog-packing in the west. It is a voluminous work and elaborate in details, and a comparison of the results of the winter packing in the West shows a total of 5,147,760 hogs of average net weight of 210-160 pounds. Average yield of lard 36 44-100 pounds each. The gain over last year in average net weight per hog is 24 5-100 pounds and in lard 7 7-100 of a pound per hog. The decrease in the number packed was 1,171,696 or nearly 17 per cent, while the decrease in aggregate weight was nearly 16 per cent. The exhibits closely verify the estimates made early in the season. The manufacture of lard reached 636,820 bbls., which is 15,362 more barrels than last year. The aggregate packing for twelve months reached 1,051,440 hogs, or 1,631,935 less than that of the preceding year. The outlook for the supply of hogs is regarded as probably below that of last year to June, but afterward not varying greatly. Estimating the season's packing the supply is likely to be 5 to 10 per cent, under last year. For eight months to November the total packing last summer was 4, 803, 000.

BROKE JAIL.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., March 30.—Two forgers, a thief, and two minor criminals have just sawed their way out of the Chippewa Falls jail and taken to the woods, having completely scooped the authorities.

PATENT REISSUES.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The special dispatch printed in your Washington News this morning relative to reissuing patents and patent monopolies stirred up the parties on both sides of the question, as was manifest in the numerous telegrams received to-day by the committees on patents and by Congressmen generally. From what your correspondent gathered to-day, it is evident that there is not to be concurrent action on the subject in the Senate and House committees, for while the Senate committee has reported favorably on the application for the extension of the patent for the steam grain shovel, the sentiment of the House committee is decidedly adverse to the application, which is also pending before that committee. The evidence as to the profits derived from the patents by its owners is conflicting. The latter admit they have received $17,000 in profits, while others allege that the profits have amounted to $300,000.

The petition of the Messrs. Siemens for the extension of letters patent for a regenerative furnace is creating a lively discussion in the House committee, and one of the members of the committee says there are about fifty attorneys retained in the case. There are numerous protests and memorials against the extension of these two patents in the possession of the House committee, which will be presented to the House in a few days. They came from the Western and Northwestern cities principally. A member of the House committee says the question as to reissues of patents and patent monopolies cannot be dodged or evaded at this session, and the discussion will be exceedingly earnest, and probably acrimonious. It is but fair to say that the case of the owners of the steam shovel patent is most plausibly argued in the report of the Senate committee, who make it appear that, in the seventeen years the owners have been engaged in introducing and working the patent, they have received but $18,353.23 over their expenses, which gave the first owners $312.94 a year, the second, $523.63. The committee say: "It finally appears that the shovel has never been to any extent a tax upon commerce or a burden or charge upon grain. It distributes the cost of shoveling grain, but does not increase that cost. Were before the introduction was paid to the hand shovelers exclusively is now divided between the shovelers, the elevator owners, and this shovel."

BECOMING ALARMED.

Uncertain Fate of the Chinese Bill—Opinion of Grant and Davis.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Pacific coast members are becoming alarmed about the Chinese bill. The fact that the bill has not been signed as soon as they had expected, convinces them that the reports that the President is contemplating a veto are well founded. The letters received at the White House are all largely against the bill.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—General Grant, when asked his opinion of the Chinese bill, said, if he had been in Congress, he thought he should not have voted for the bill in its present form. If he were President, he did not know whether he should veto it or not. He thought the bill was objectionable in its present shape. He was not in favor of the Chinese coming to this country, but he thought the difficulty could be met in a better way than legislation here. He thought the Chinese government should be allowed to control the matter and keep their people at home. He expressed a decided opinion that they would do it if we would let them. The Chinese did not want to emigrate, except in cases of some who had been here once and desired to return. No Chinaman, said this exception, ever came to this country willingly. He was of the opinion that it could be arranged by treaty that the Chinese should stop emigration of their own accord.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—It is understood that the President has not yet made up his mind whether he will sign or veto the bill, and will reserve judgment on the subject until after the Friday Cabinet meeting, which he can do within ten days, which may elapse by law between the passage and veto or approval of the bill. The time will expire next Tuesday, so that probably, Monday he will send either the veto message or approve it with a recommendation for its amendment. It is not currently believed that, if he signs the bill at all he will give his unqualified approval. It is said that acting Vice-President Davis remarked to a friend to-day that he considered the bill as undeniably in violation of the treaty, and that he would not hesitate a moment in vetoing it if he were President.

THE TARIFF.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Careful computation made as to the probable duration of the tariff debate puts it at about twenty-eight days. There are now 168 members registered to speak, and according to the precedent set in the opening speeches their time will probably not be limited, but a reasonable extension will be granted to all who wish it. Mr. Kelley intends to interject his internal revenue bill into the debate at some favorable opportunity. When there have been two or three weeks of talk, so that he can tell how the House feels on the tariff question, he will make strenuous efforts to have this bill considered on some pretext. He is confident that it will go through, and he hopes to secure its passage, in order to check the desire of many members to cut down the revenues, either by tariff revision or cutting down internal taxes. If the bill should pass the tariff could not be modified, simply because the government would need all the duties collected. There is so much in this bill that many doubt the ability of Mr. Kelley to push it through. WASHINGTON, March 30.—There is to be a studied effort, it is said, by the free-traders, to attempt to make capital by quoting old speeches of Mr. Kasson for the purpose of breaking the force of the masterly argument with which he opened the tariff debate. Mr. Hewitt's speeches contained a precursor of what is promised. Mr. Kasson to-day, in reply to a question by your correspondent relative to his position on the tariff now as compared with his views at the time cited by Mr. Hewitt, said that he held both then and now, to the principle of protection. He had simply become more deeply convinced of the necessity for American protection with reference to the effect upon our industries and upon labor. The foundation was the same but he had amplified its application in the light of facts. His observation of the working of various international trade systems during his residence abroad had further convinced him of the wisdom of protection for this country, and as a result he had since taken a more advanced position than before as shown by his speech on Tuesday last.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—The reported catastrophe at Ralston's gin house, at Lake St. John, in Tensas Parish, proves to have been a canard. It was published as true in the Natchez Democrat this morning, the news having been brought to Natchez by refugees. It took some time to get intelligence from the place of the reported accident, but to-day a messenger was sent from Rodney, Miss., and returned with the information that the story was an unfounded rumor. It owed its origin to the burning of a house at Captain Ralston's place, in which were a number of refugees, but they all escaped without loss of life to the gin-house, which is still safe. A cyclone, swept over the plantation the same day, destroying several houses, none of which were inhabited.

LAND GRANTS.

More Than One Hundred Millions of Acres of the Public Domain Given Away.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The speaker presented to the House, to-day, a communication from the secretary of the interior, in relation to a response to the resolution of Representative Cobb, calling for information relative to those States and railroad corporations to which grants of public lands had been made, to aid in the construction of railroads, and not completed within the time required by law. The report names ten States: Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Arkansas, Missouri, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota, to which grants of public land have been made to aid in construction of railroads within their limits. It also names eight corporations: The Northern Pacific, California and Oregon, (now the Oregon branch of the Central Pacific), Oregon Central, (now the Oregon and California R.R. Co.), Atlantic and Pacific, Northern Pacific, California, (main line), Oregon Central, Texas and Pacific, (now the Texas and Pacific), and the New Orleans, Baton Rouge and Vicksburg, (now the New Orleans and Pacific R.R. Co.) to which grants of public lands were made, direct to aid in the completion of their several roads.

The aggregate number of miles of railroad proposed to be built by these corporations, to which grants of land were made direct, was 7,743, of which 1,465 have been constructed at the time required for the completion of the entire lines. The aggregate amount of lands granted to these eight corporations, is 116,589,008 acres, of which 3,971,391 have been patented to the several companies. The railroad companies receiving the benefit of the lands granted by the ten States mentioned above, are: Gulf & Ship Island, Tascaloosa & Mobile, Mobile & New Orleans, Memphis & Charleston, Mobile & Girard, Seima, Rome & Dalton, Savannah & Albany, Coosa & Tennessee, Elyton & Boardman, Atlantic Gulf & West India Transit Co., Pensacola & Georgia, (from Lake City to Pensacola, Florida), Florida, Atlantic & Gulf Central, (from Jacksonville to Lake City), North Louisiana & Texas, Little Rock & Fort Smith, Iron Mountain & St. Louis, Detroit & Milwaukee, Port Huron & Milwaukee, Jackson, Lansing & Saginaw, Northern Central Michigan, Amboy, Lansing & Traverse Bay, Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon, Ontonagon & State Line, Sioux City & St. Paul, West Wisconsin, North Wisconsin, Wisconsin Central, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba, Western Railroad Co. (formerly Brainerd branch St. Paul & Pacific), Southern Minnesota railway extension, Lake Superior & Mississippi, Hastings & Dakota, in all 32 companies. Of these six have constructed no portion of the roads and nine have not had any of their lines yet patented. The aggregate number of miles of railroad proposed to be built by the 32 companies is 4,312; to be completed within the time required for completion. The entire amount is 1,665 miles. The aggregate amount of their land grants are 21,252, 349 acres. Patented companies, 10,962, 106 acres. Grand totals of all companies involved in land grants, and the number of miles proposed to be constructed is 12,060. The aggregate amount of land grants is 137,881,357 acres. Patented to companies 14,873,497 acres.

Richard Conley, stenographer to Fox River Legislative committee.....	50 00
Total.....	$975,254 44

The direct appropriations in 1881 were $292,081.38; in 1880, they amounted to $418,953.05; in 1879, to $299,177.77, and at the regular session of 1878, to about $330,000.

The causes for the unusually large appropriation this year are several. The principal of these is the enlargement of the Capitol, which calls for $200,000 alone; the deficiency in the State institutions and the appropriation for the Industrial School for Girls are also important items which bring up the aggregate.—Madison Journal.

The Husband's Morning Orders.

How the good husband serveth the wife and tendeth to all her requests even as he goeth forth with the rising of the sun to his daily labor, and how he promiseth with exceeding readiness what no man was ever yet able to perform, and so forth, and so on:

Very Dear Wife—Hubby, when you're going down town won't you just step into the market and order the dinner?

Good Husband—Yes, dear; what shall it be?

V. D. W.—Oh, a roast of beef, some beets, some potatoes, fish, celery, tomatoes, and—well, you know. And, my dear, be particular to tell the butcher to put up two pounds of suet for a pudding, and some lamb's kidneys to chop up for the gravy. And dear—

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. D. W.—Won't you step into the drug store and get 25 cents' worth of that choice white castle soap and a box of corn plaster and an ounce of glycerine?

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. D. W.—And, dear, just step into the stove man's and tell him to hurry up that pipe and that the parlor stove must be set up to-day; and won't you take down the wash boiler to be mended?

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. D. W.—And when you're down town, won't you just step into the stationer's and get a box of fancy note paper and envelopes?

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. D. W.—Oh! and I must have a new tack hammer and some very small tacks—the very smallest kind, you know—and some picture nails and wire. And won't you step into the picture framer's and see if that frame is done?

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. G. D.—Oh, won't you order some wine down town, and the whisky's out and so are the lemons.

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. D. W.—And if you see a scissors grinder anywhere on the streets, here's my scissors for him to grind, and while you're about it you may as well take the carving knife and my penknife; both need sharpening.

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. D. W.—And step in at Stewart's as you come home and get some of those new napkins and two new counterpanes, for the cold weather is coming on.

G. H.—Yes, dear, yes.

V. D. W.—Oh, and here's three shades of sewing silk I wish you'd match for me. There's only one shop in the city where you can get it. It's on Tenth avenue somewhere near Sixteenth street. No, not Tenth, it's Eleventh. I declare I've so much to think of I can't recollect anything, and send the piano tuner, too, won't you?

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. D. W.—And don't forget the toilet soap, will you, dear?

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. D. W.—Not the napkins, will you?

G. H.—Yes, dear.

V. D. W.—And you won't stay out to dinner and not come home till midnight, now, will you, dear?

G. H.—Yes, dear. New York Graphic.

A CARD.
To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City. nov12dawly

Mothers! Mothers!!!
Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MISS WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. Give your mother on earth who has ever used it, who will tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere 25 cents a bottle. mar12wed-ans33wly

A POPULAR TONIC
For Weak Lungs and Consumption
No preparation ever introduced to the American public for the relief and cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Debilitated Constitutions, Weakness of the Lungs, or Consumption in the incipient or advanced stages of the disease, has ever met with the indorsements of physicians or patients as the celebrated "Tolu, Rock and Rye." The repeated and continued sales of the article everywhere are the best evidence of its real merits. Letters and testimonials from every quarter of the country, attesting the stimulating, tonic and healing effects, are in possession of the proprietors, and can be added to convince the most skeptical reader of its intrinsic virtues. Further commendation is unnecessary and superfluous, as a trial of this article, having a pleasant taste and agreeable flavor, will satisfy all those who are afflicted or pining away with pulmonary weakness, the relief to be secured by the use of Tolu, Rock and Rye.—Chicago Times. dec22dawly —Rock River is rising slowly.

—R. H. Wehm, of Beloit, is in the city.

—E. L. Parnley, of Center is at the Pender house.

—J. W. Sale, district attorney, is at Magnolia to-day.

—Merchants would save money by having street sprinklers at work to-day.

—S. Alexander, sold to C. H. Spafford, of Rockford, a fine pair of black horses for $500.

—Mrs. A. L. Phillips and daughter arrived from Rockville yesterday, and are stopping at the Pender house.

—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dewey, Bluff street, was made happier last night, by the arrival of a handsome girl baby.

—We regret to learn that George Barnes, a resident of the Third ward, is seriously ill, the principal trouble seems to be a severe attack of rheumatism.

—Don't fail to attend the Ward meetings to-night, the selection of sensible delegates will insure the nomination of good men for the various offices to be filled.

—Mrs. H. L. Barlow, of the Fourth ward, who has been visiting friends in Iowa for the past few months, has returned home to the joy of her many friends.

—The Free Press says Mrs. John Maxworthy, of Manchester, died from the effects of vaccination. The virus with which she was vaccinated was taken from her little son's arm.

—There will be a meeting at Goodwin's opera house, Beloit, to-night, to put in nomination temperance candidates for the various city offices to be filled at the approaching election.

—Mr. Phillips and son came in to-day and put up at the Pender house. They intend to make Janesville their future residence. Mr. Phillips will be interested with Mr. Edwards in the purchase and sale of fine horses.

—A patriotic livery stable keeper refused to hire a horse and buggy to a gentleman who wanted to go in the country to distribute Conger tracts, remarking as he refused that his property should not be put to "such base uses."

—A. E. Bailey, of Littleton, New Hampshire, took possession of the Davis house this morning. Mr. Bailey is putting in new furniture, is cleaning, painting and improving and will make the Davis house an attractive place.

—Hon. John Conley, member of the Assembly from the third district of Rock county; Frank Ames, postmaster of the Assembly, and T. R. Morgan, of the Snyder house at Clinton, were among the callers at the Gazette office to-day.

—Mr. Vaughn, of the town of Fulton, had a suit of clothes stolen from his house last night. The supposed thief—Delap, was traced to Milton by an officer, and it is only a question of a very short time till Judge Patten will render him ample justice for his short comings.

—The following officers have been recommended for promotion, and as it is known that the Governor has a high appreciation of their abilities, the recommendations will be favorably considered; Lieut. Colonel Britton, of Janesville, to be Colonel; Major McLenagan, of Beloit, to be Lieutenant Colonel, and Captain Reed, of Racine, to be Major of the first regiment.

—His Honor discharged James Madden yesterday afternoon, after keeping him in suspense about two hours, and treating him to a very edifying lecture on the sin of frightening nervous people with revolvers, and the greater sin of filling up with corn juice, and thereby becoming recklessly inspired. We feel sure James won't allow his youthful blood to betray his judgement hereafter, and that the terrible punishment he underwent will be a lesson that he won't soon forget.

—A certain man in the city went to a livery stable to hire a team to go into the country to peddle tickets and circulars against John R. Bennett, and was told that he could not have a team for any such purpose. He then went elsewhere, got a horse and started on his mission, when the horse balked and would carry him no further, and he had to return. This is a straw which directs one's mind to public sentiment on the judicial question.

—Lawrence, Atwood, Lowell & Co., will soon occupy their new warehouse near the depot which is being pushed to completion as rapidly as possible, their sales rooms on Milwaukee street opposite the corn exchange is too much crowded for their large stock, which cannot be seen to advantage in their present crowded condition. Their sales of agricultural implements and farm machinery have been large since the roads commenced drying.

—Peter Neyhart, aged 75 years 6 months and 26 days, died at his residence yesterday afternoon, after a short and severe illness of a few days. The deceased was a member of the Temple of Honor, and had been sexton of the Methodist church for about two years and a half. Two married daughters, Mrs. Glenn and Mrs. Beatty, living in Riley county, Kansas, have been telegraphed for; also a son living at Broadhead, in this State, and a sister living in Iowa. The funeral will take place next Sunday from the Methodist church, and the members of the Temple of Honor will attend the church in regalia and march with the funeral as far as the gas house. Mrs. Neyhart is suffering from the same disease—congestion of the lungs—that took her husband off so suddenly, and Dr. Sutherland, the family physician, is doing all he can for her.

—Alderman O. F. Nowlan returned from Fond du Lac to-day. He is feeling happy owing to his success in securing the contract for building the new court house for Fond du Lac county. The bids were as follows: John Felin, of Milwaukee, $71,961; John Bentley & Son, of Milwaukee, $62,370; A. W. Martin, of Fond du Lac, $70,438; F. H. Nichols, of Fond du Lac, $78,000; O. F. Nowlan, of Janesville, $61,994. The building will be a two story red pressed brick with stone trimmings, on a stone basement. The first floor to be nearly fireproof. E. T. Mix & Co., of Milwaukee, are the architects. Mr. Nowlan is to be congratulated upon his success in being awarded this important contract. He was brought in contact with the heaviest builders in the State, and against them had to make his bids, and that he came out best in the contest is an achievement over which his many friends here feel proud. The work could not have fallen into better hands.

—The Madison Journal, of last evening, says:—The Clinton Mining Company, with a capital stock of $10,000, was to-day organized by the filing of the requisite articles with the Secretary of State. Its purposes are the prospecting for and discovery of mines in any State of the Union, developing the same, and smelting gold, silver, iron, lead and other ores, as may be deemed expedient. The location of the new organization is to be at Clinton, Rock county. —Last evening a train unusually large, even for the Northwestern road, passed north, it being the regular 5:15 passenger. There were fourteen cars in all, which would make the train as long fully as an ordinary freight train. Two cars were used for baggage, and the space they afforded was little too large for the amount of baggage there was to carry. Probably there were upon the train nearly one thousand people, for it was impossible for one to get a seat when it left the city, so crowded was it. Both the Northwestern and St. Paul companies are doing an immense passenger traffic at present, no less than freight.

—The State University closed, yesterday, at 12 o'clock, for the spring vacation of one week. The last term was twelve weeks long, and the spring term will be eleven weeks, the institution closing for the long summer vacation on the 21st of June. The students have generally departed for their homes, though many intend remaining here during the week. State street assumes a different appearance when the University closes, and the citizens who reside upon it say that they are really lonesome without the students, though they occasionally become obnoxious by their noisiness.

The Land League.

Rev. G. E. Gordon, of Milwaukee, will deliver a lecture at Lappin's hall, this evening at eight o'clock, for the benefit of the land league. The admission price is only twenty-five cents, and it is hoped that the hall will be filled. Mr. Gordon is said to be an eloquent speaker, and his lecture will be worth more than the admission fee, and every person that can attend should do so, and express by their presence, at least, their sympathy for the suffering people of Ireland.

The Opera Engagement Cancelled.

Mr. Moseley received a telegram from Mr. Max Strakosch last evening, from the forms of the Gazette had gone to press, stating that the engagement of the Grand Italian Opera would be cancelled. This announcement will be received not only with surprise, but with bitter disappointment and deep regret by the music loving people of Janesville. When it is considered that this was the first engagement of a grand opera in Janesville, one which is heartily welcomed and generously patronized by other cities of the country, it is nothing less than humiliating that this city could not give sufficient inducements to warrant the appearance here of so able and well known opera as that which Mr. Strakosch has organized in this country. The advance sale of seats had not been large enough to satisfy Mr. Moseley and Mr. Strakosch that the company could appear here without a financial loss to the management, and having flattered offers from other cities, the engagement was, as a matter of course, cancelled. By this failure of the company to appear here, the people of Janesville are the losers, and they can blame no one but themselves.

The Press Says of the Oberlin Glee Club.

"The audience was treated to an entertainment of a peculiarly delightful character. The sympathies of a cold audience were so completely won that spontaneous bursts of applause followed the rendition of each piece."—Cleveland Leader.
"The club is made up of young and fresh voices, sweet to the ear, and trained to the highest technical point. Every member showed wondrously exact harmony of sound, round, vigorous, and well balanced and inspiring. At this point (Brooks' tenor solo)—'Bring back my Bonnie to me,' the encores became so numerous that the programme was nearly lost sight of. Frequently the audience was so charmed with the encore, that a double encore became necessary in order to appease the popular enthusiasm; nor was there a dirth of wholesome fun in the entertainment. Many of the songs rendered were brimful of merriment and provoked irrepressible mirth."—Cleveland Herald.
"Took the house by storm."—Cleveland News.

"One of the best musical organizations in the country."—Cleveland Leader.

It was expected that the club would do well. The excellent reputation of the Oberlin music college, gave assurance for that, but that the club would give us the ripened performance of older established organizations, was as enjoying as surprising. The singers were abundantly skilled and earned merited applause."—Cleveland Sunday Sun.
